A dōTERRA® Business

Are You Ready to Live Your Dreams?

---

There was a woman who hauled buckets of water for a living. Every day, she hauled water from the nearest source to her distant village. If she needed more money, she'd simply work longer hours and haul more buckets.

After many years, she grew weary of hauling buckets. Then inspiration came. If she used her spare time to build a pipeline, she could eventually create a new kind of financial security and be free from hauling buckets. She labored diligently for a few years to build her pipeline.

The day she turned on the spigot, everything changed. She successfully created an unlimited supply of water, improved her villagers' lifestyles, and secured her own financial future.

Today this woman is free to live her dreams.

A photograph of two women sitting on a light-colored sofa in a bright, sunlit room. The woman on the left has dark curly hair and is wearing a blue short-sleeved top. She is gesturing with her hands while speaking. The woman on the right has long blonde hair and is wearing a light grey cardigan over a white top. She is smiling and looking at the first woman. They are both looking at a book or document held by the woman on the right. The background shows a large window with a view of green trees and a bright sky. The overall mood is warm and positive.

“Success is the sum of small efforts,
repeated day in and day out.”
