PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Before the sun crests the horizon, workers can be found in fields harvesting the delicate bloom of the Rosa damascena. The labour-intensive production process has a very low yield; it takes approximately 1,160,000 freshly picked rose petals to produce only one ounce (30 mL) of Rose essential oil. Because the petals are so delicate, the distillation process must happen the same day that the flower is harvested. But, from this labour comes an essential oil known for its sweet floral aroma that's beautiful and romantic. Rose essential oil helps moisturise the skin, reduces the appearance of skin imperfections, and promotes the appearance of healthy skin and even skin tone. The uplifting aroma of Rose is an intriguing mixture of depth and complex sweetness.
