

Cade Wood

Juniperus oxycedrus 5 ml

dōTERRA™ | EUROPE

PRODUCT INFORMATION PAGE

PRIMARY BENEFITS

- Produces a woody, spicy and earthy aroma.
- Can help to promote healthy-looking hair, scalp and skin.
- A powerful addition to shampoos and conditioners.
- Compliments the properties of other essential oils including Thyme, Rosemary, Clove and Cedarwood.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Cade Wood comes from a large, hardy evergreen shrub in the Cupressaceae (cypress) family. Historically, the oil has been used in folk medicines and its scent is evident in soaps, detergents, lotions and fragrances. Notably, in the perfume industry, cade wood has been sought-after for its pine elements as a base note in men's fragrances. In manufacturing, it's used as an ingredient in creams, ointments and anti-dandruff shampoos.

USES

- Add a drop to dōTERRA shampoo or conditioner to promote healthy-looking hair.
- Combine with lotions and creams and apply to targeted areas for effective skin support.
- Use in homemade soaps and salves to enjoy a refreshing woody, pine-like scent.
- When creating your own at-home fragrance, use it as a base note before laying with richer, sweeter heart and top notes for an earthy perfume.
