

dōTERRA Europe BOGO Sale Information and Rules

What does BOGO mean?

BOGO is an acronym for Buy-One-Get-One free offers.

How do I find out what the dōTERRA Europe BOGOs are?

These daily specials will be announced each day during the promotion on the dōTERRA Europe Facebook page – just look for the BOGO offer. Like us on Facebook to see the daily offers on your Facebook feed.

How long do the dōTERRA Europe BOGOs last?

Each offer will begin at 0:00 CEST (23:00 GMT+1) and will be available until 23:59 CEST while supplies last. If you choose to participate, your order must be placed and processed within that 24-hour period. This means these offers cannot be saved on an LRP template. They can, however, be processed as an LRP, but the order must be processed immediately.

What markets are eligible to participate in the dōTERRA Europe BOGOs?

The dōTERRA Europe BOGOs are available to all WAs, Preferred Members and Retail Customers in the Europe market only.

How many BOGOs can I buy?

There is a limit on the BOGOs each day. Please see Facebook for more details.

Can I combine BOGOs over several days to save on shipping?

No, each BOGO is only good for 24-hours. A great way to save on shipping is to get together with friends and place one order.

Points will be based on the PV of the item you are purchasing. Example: If the special was Buy 1 Lemon Get 1 TerraShield Free, you would receive LRP points for the Lemon PV.

LRP orders processed with less than 50 PV will not earn LRP Points.

Can I pay for a BOGO with LRP Product Points?

No, you cannot pay for a BOGO offer with product points.

Can I pay for a BOGO with Wire Transfer or Direct Debit?

No, all BOGO orders must be pre-paid with credit card or AR.
