General Session
Vivint Arena
9 a.m.–12 p.m.

Confidence

In this session, you'll get an insight into why doTERRA is the place for you—now and moving forward. The future of this business and the ability to meet the challenges of growth depend on a rock solid foundation now. It starts with the importance of our sourcing model, and our insistence of purity in every step along the way. Next, creating strategic strongholds in healthcare, research, and science ensures that products are the most pure and most effective. Lastly, what matters most is how it works for you and your family. Hear from doTERRA Executive Founders, Sourcing Experts, and doTERRA Leaders how doTERRA is uniquely positioned to continue to grow, the opportunities ahead, and your part in it.
